

1/3/2012 12:09:00 AM

Top Ten Local Sport Stories of 2011

Here is the list of the Top Ten local sports stories of 2011. Go to today's edition of The Times Bulletin to read about each one.

10. Terrific Turnarounds - The turnarounds of the Spencerville and Crestview football programs.

9. Clouse Eyes Record Books - Cooper Clouse continues to rack up wins in the USAC racing circuit.

8. Lady Knights Return to State - The Crestview softball team went back to the state finals again.

7. Orsbon Excels - Crestview alum Briggs Orsbon named to the Academic All-American football team.

6. Hall of Fame Skills Camp - Three Hall-of-Fame basketball coaches come together to teach at a basketball camp.

5. Losing a Legend - The loss of Coach Bob Arnzen.

4. Ray Etzler Gymnasium - Crestview names their gymnasium after Hall-of-Fame coach Ray Etzler.

3. Eggers Stadium Turns 75

2. Leon Aims for 2012 Olympics - Van Wert alum Craig Leon qualifies for the Olympic Trials in the marathon.

1. Rase Goes From Ball Diamond to Silver Screen - Crestview grad Kyle Rase takes Gibsonburg to a state championship and has a movie made about the season.

